 - 2. Internal Registers;
 - 3. Re-eligibility Registers or Open Competitive Registers;
- B. Deviation from the above preferred order may be approved by the Human Resources Manager when it is in the best interests of the City to do so, or when making an appointment from a re-eligibility list, except that issuance of a hiring list and appointment from a Register shall be made without deviation from this order. Departments may transfer, temporarily detail or demote employees in accordance with these Rules irrespective of the existence of employment registers.

Section 2. Referral of Eligible Candidates

- A. When a Department Director requests a vacancy to be filled, the Human Resources Manager as appropriate shall refer eligible candidates on a hiring list for the Department Director's consideration from the appropriate register. - C. An eligible may accept or decline temporary employment without jeopardizing register standing for appointment to a regular position .
- D. The Human Resources Manager may refer on a hiring list eligibles for a lower or lateral class from an open competitive register if no register for the lower or lateral class exists or it is determined that the evaluated qualifications of the remaining eligibles on these registers do not meet the needs of the City.
- E. An eligible on an original employment register who accepts a position under the provisions of Section 2, paragraph D of this rule, will remain on the original register for the positions for which original eligibility was established unless removed in accordance with Section 8 of Rule 10.

If more than one vacancy is being filled from a hiring list, the Department shall interview one additional person for each additional vacancy.
- B. The Human Resources Manager will assess the validity of any list and may shorten or extend the expiration date of any hiring list depending on the number and availability of eligibles. Department Directors and the Human Resources Manager may re-recruit and supplement a current hiring list with additional candidates when the position requires additional or exceptional qualifications, or when determined in the best interests of the City.
